

Knee Deep Into History Battlefield Tours

The American GI 80th Anniversary: Normandy to the Ardennes
Small Group Battlefield Tour
22 – 30 July 2024 (9-days / 8-nights)

Troops of the 504th PIR, 82nd Airborne Div. going into the line at Cheneux, 22 December 1944

Travel back in time as we get knee deep into history with the American GI of WW2 in Western Europe in 1944. The Allied Armies landed on Normandy on 6 June 1944 and by the fall of 1944 Allied divisions were starting to push into Germany; only to find the advance extremely costly. This fast-moving overview tour will focus on the key offensive actions of 1944, starting with the June 1944 Normandy Landings. From Normandy we'll move briefly to Reims, France, before heading to the Netherlands for an overview of Operation Market Garden. After that we'll travel a bit south to the bloody Huertgen Forest, scene of unbelievable bloodshed for a few American divisions attacking against entrenched German soldiers in terrain that favored the defender. Finally, we'll spend time in the Ardennes, the last big battle of 1944 where Hitler tried in vain to change the momentum of the war on the Western Front.

In addition to visiting key battlefield sites we'll also be spending time at the various American and international cemeteries dedicated to the fallen of WW2. This will give participants a chance to remember the fallen and to reflect on the human cost of WW2.

Day 2—Tuesday, 23 July—Normandy landings with an emphasis on Utah and Omaha Beaches and the U.S. Airborne Landing Zones. Visit to Normandy American Cemetery. Hotel in Normandy TBD.

Day 3—Wednesday, 24 July—Normandy, day two, including a look at British and Canadian sites and a brief focus on the break-out, concentrating on the actions of German Tank Commander, Michael Wittmann in and around Villers-Bocage. Mid-afternoon drive to Reims, France. Hotel in or near Reims TBD.

Day 4—Thursday, 25 July—Early morning down time to allow for shopping and visiting its famous Cathedral, followed by a tour of the Musée de la Reddition Reims, France, one of the German surrender sites at the end of WW2, and a visit to Mourmelon-le-Grand, where the 501st PIR, 101st Airborne Division was stationed at the outbreak of the Ardennes Offensive. Afternoon drive to the Netherlands. Hotel in the Netherlands TBD.

Day 5—Friday, 26 July—Operation Market Garden sites in the Netherlands. Hotel in the Netherlands TBD.

Day 6—Saturday, 27 July—Morning travel to the Huertgen Forest. Visit the Huertgen Forest. Hotel TBD.

Day 7—Sunday, 28 July—Morning drive to the Ardennes. Ardennes Offensive day one. Hotel TBD.

Day 8—Monday, 29 July—Ardennes Offensive day two. Afternoon down time in Bastogne. Hotel TBD.

Day 9, Tuesday, 30 July—Ardennes Offensive half-day. Afternoon drive to BRU Airport for a late afternoon / early evening drop off. The tour ends with the arrival at BRU.

Participants are responsible for their own lodging arrangements or further travel after we reach BRU. Options include: booking a hotel near the airport, booking a hotel in Brussels and taking a train or taxi to the hotel, or traveling further on via rental car or train.

About Knee Deep Into History, LLC and its Battlefield Tour Philosophy

Knee Deep Into History, LLC was founded by Randy Gaulke after he spent eight months during 2017-18 as a freelance guide to the American battlefields of WW1. During those eight months (and the prior thirty years) Randy's tour philosophy has evolved. Key tenets of his philosophy include:

1. Getting clients into the field as much as possible; in contrast to a "museum and memorials" tour.
2. Guiding small-group tours to ensure greater interaction with the guides.
3. Attempting to present a balanced view of both sides of the story.
4. Designing a tour for those seriously interested in history.
5. Introducing clients to local, not American, culture.

General Tour Format—What can you Expect from a KDIH Tour?

- This small-group tour is designed to enable maximum interaction between participants and guides; size is limited to a maximum of 12 participants.
- Unless otherwise noted in the tour brochure, there will be two guides on each trip, normally including one non-American guide to enhance the international nature of the tour.
- Clients will be picked up and returned to the designated meeting point at the times indicated.
 - Clients desiring other arrangements need to communicate their needs to Randy Gaulke in advance with the understanding that KDIH has to balance an individual client's needs with the group.
- The tour will be conducted in one or two nine-person vans or possibly one minivan and one car.
- We plan to stay in three-star traditional European hotel / restaurants.
- The evening of day 1 will include our first tour briefing followed by an introduction dinner.
- On tour days, participants should expect to be "in the field" from 09h00 to somewhere around 17h00, regardless of weather. This will be followed by a short break and dinner around 19h00 or 19h30.
 - Participants should bring appropriate clothing for the field, and nicer clothes for evening meals.
- Spouses and mature young adults are welcome, but please understand that there will be limited down time for sightseeing or time off.
- Regarding meals:
 - Continental breakfast will be served at the hotel.
 - Modest sandwich lunches (with wonderful European bread) will generally be eaten "in the field" to conserve time.
 - Snacks of water, soda, fruit and sweets will be available for free in the van to recharge one's batteries. Depending on the schedule and other factors, we will sometimes stop for coffee in a local café.
 - Multi-course dinners will generally start at the hotel restaurant around 19h00.
 - Traditional European dinners often last two hours +/-; this gives participants a chance to socialize and share their thoughts on the days' activities among each other and the tour guides.
- Most costs are included in the tour price. Costs not included are: 1) all dinner drinks, 2) dinners or lunches specifically excluded, including the dinner "on your own" mentioned above, and 3) souvenirs.
 - Also, transportation costs, including airfare, to the pick-up and return location is not included.
- We plan to visit key American Battle Monuments Commission Cemeteries and Memorials as well as German (and other national) military cemeteries and memorials in the area.
- We hope to make our tours international in nature and the tour is being marketed to European clients too, but no promises can be made.
- Because of the length of this tour, we have worked in a few cultural items, including,...

If this tour format sounds attractive to you, we look forward to getting you knee deep into history!

Meet Tour Guides, Randy Gaulke and Markus Klauer

Randy Gaulke has been studying military history for decades as a wargamer, reenactor and battlefield visitor. In 2017 he left the corporate world and in 2017-18 he lived and worked eight months in France as a freelance guide to the WW1 battlefields during the WW1 Centennial. His experiences during those eight months convinced him to follow his passion and start a tour business. Randy has also visited the Ardennes and Normandy several times since 2010. In total, he has lived in Europe for more than two years and he speaks fluent English and German and intermediate French. He lives in Winchester, VA, not far from the National Archives.

Markus Klauer is a retired Bundeswehr Officer whose military career included five years in an armored battalion and professional work with American and French units. Like Randy, Markus has been studying military history and visiting battlefields for decades. He has written five books in German covering WW1 and his website can be viewed at <https://gb.weltkriegsbuch.de>. Since retiring in 2018 Markus has been expanding his battlefield research to the battlefields of WW2, including the Ardennes, Sedan 1940, Normandy and the Seelow Heights near Berlin. Markus lives in Lille, France and he speaks German, English and French fluently.

Randy and Markus have known each other for nearly 30 years. Their first major collaboration was a Small-Group Battlefield Walk Series of the Meuse-Argonne and St. Mihiel Salient and a Meet and Greet Dinner during the 2018 Centennial Commemoration. This was followed by successful Knee Deep Into History tour seasons in 2021-23. Both share a deep love of historical research and a desire to get their clients into the field. With their language and cultural skills, both understand the “other side,” and both strive to present a balanced view of the combat.

Select Feedback from Knee Deep Into History, LLC's 2023 Tour Season

“This week has been a dream come true for me, thanks to the meticulous preparation and execution of the two of you. I truly felt as if I was walking in the footsteps of my grand-uncle in WW1 and of my dad in WW2, seeing what each of them was seeing and trying to imagine what each of them might have been thinking and feeling during their respective wartime experiences. I couldn't have asked for a more meaningful experience and the way the two of you embraced my entire family made the experience even more magical and memorable for me. I can't thank you enough!” John Decker.

“You have both far exceeded my expectations on this trip. I have been on many tours and know how they should be done and you two have surpassed them all. The time you both put in to personalize the trip details was extraordinary. This most thrilling part for me was sharing this experience with ALL my brothers. We have never traveled like this all together and I was not sure how that would work out. Thanks to you two it was fabulous. And to have Aidan and my grandson Jake as part of this is the thrill of a lifetime. They will never forget this experience. Thank You!” Bill Decker.

“On behalf of the men, women and horses of the Second Company Governor's Horse Guard, we can't thank you enough for your professionalism, organization and friendship on this tour. Being able to walk in the footsteps of our unit and men during the Great War has been a tremendous experience. However, visiting the cemeteries and honoring our fallen has been very emotional and the highlight of this journey. With kindest regards and admiration.” Capt. Paul Mazzara, Lt. Col. Stephen L. de Friesse, 1st Lt. Barbara Spremullo and Lt. Col. Gordon Johnson.
