

Knee Deep Into History Battlefield Tours

“They Shall Not Pass”: Verdun 1916-17
Small Group Battlefield Tour
21 – 23 June 2025 (3-days / 2-nights)

The destruction and reconciliation of Verdun in two photos.

Join Knee Deep Into History’s “They Shall Not Pass”: Verdun Tour and learn more about the war of attrition that characterized the Great War in 1916-17. For France and Germany, the battle of Verdun that began in February 1916 is synonymous with industrialized war. Hundreds of thousands of young French and German soldiers lost their lives or health during this period.

More recently, Verdun stands as a symbol of Franco-German reconciliation. In Sept. 2024 the two countries commemorated the 40th Anniversary of Kohl and Mitterand’s reconciliation summit in Sept. 1984.

More than 500 kilometers of trenches, countless monuments, dozens of fortresses and concrete structures can still be found on the battlefields. The battlefield is also dotted with large and small cemeteries, where the fallen rest. For all these reasons, Verdun is one of the most moving and impressive battlefields of the First World War and is worth a visit. Get knee deep into history as we explore the context of the fighting and the individual human stories!

Schedule: (Subject to Modification)

Pick-up and return point for this tour will be CDG airport. A specific meeting point will be provided later. Participants are responsible for arranging their own transportation to and from the meeting point. Participants with their own vehicles can arrange to meet us at an alternate location.

Day 1, Saturday, 21 June: Pick up at CDG at 12:00pm. Some afternoon stops, covering the initial German assault, followed by an introductory briefing and dinner beginning early evening.

Day 2, Sunday, 22 June: Continued focus on the East Bank of the Meuse River, including Fort Douaumont, Fleury and Fort Vaux.

Day 3, Monday, 23 June: Focus on the West Bank of the Meuse River, including Forges and Forges Forest, Hill 304 and le Mort Homme. Late afternoon drive back to CDG. We anticipate arriving at CDG at 19h00.

Participants are responsible for their own lodging arrangements or further travel after the end of the tour. Options include: booking a hotel near the airport, booking a hotel in Paris and taking a train or taxi to the hotel, or traveling further via rental car or train.

Knee Deep Into History's Tour Philosophy

Knee Deep Into History LLC was founded by Randy Gaulke in 2020 after he spent eight months in 2017-18 as a freelance guide to the American battlefields of WW1. During those eight months (and the prior thirty years) Randy's tour philosophy has evolved. We:

1. TAKE clients into the field,
2. GUIDE small-group tours (12 max.),
3. PROMOTE a balanced view of both sides,
4. OFFER tours for passionate history buffs,
5. BRIDGE cultures.

What to Expect from a KDIH Tour

- Our small-group tours are designed to enable maximum interaction between participants and guides. Size is generally limited to a maximum of 12 participants.
- Clients will be picked up and returned to the designated starting and ending point at the times indicated.
 - Clients desiring other arrangements need to communicate their needs to Randy Gaulke in advance with the understanding that KDIH has to balance an individual client's needs with the group.
- On tour days, participants should expect to be "in the field" from 09h00 to somewhere around 17h00, regardless of weather. This will be followed by a break and dinner around 19h30.
 - Participants should bring appropriate clothing for the field, and nicer clothing for evening meals.
 - Please see the clothing guide on our website for ideas.
- Spouses and mature young adults are welcome, but please understand that there will be limited down time for sightseeing and time off.
 - When moving from one hotel to another, it will generally not be possible to stay in town.
- Regarding meals:
 - Continental breakfast will be served at the hotel.
 - Sandwich lunches (with wonderful European bread) will be eaten "in the field" to conserve time.
 - Snacks of water, soda, fruit and sweets will be available for free in the van to recharge one's batteries.
 - Multi-course dinners will generally start at the hotel/restaurant around 19h00.
 - Traditional European dinners often last two hours +/-.
 - This gives participants a chance to socialize, ask questions of the guides and share their experiences of the day.
- As per the 2025 Terms and Conditions, in the event that we have fewer than six participants signed up 61 days prior to the tour, we reserve the right to cancel the tour or we can run the tour with only one guide and/or step the hotels down to high-quality two-star hotels.

Meet Tour Guides Randy Gaulke and Markus Klauer

Randy Gaulke has been studying military history for decades as a wargamer, reenactor and battlefield visitor. In 2017 he left the corporate world and during 2017-18 he lived and worked eight months in France as a freelance guide to the WW1 battlefields during the WW1 Centennial. His experiences during those eight months convinced him to follow his passion and start a tour business. Randy has also visited and guided tours of the WW2 battlefields since 2008. Over his life he has lived in Europe almost three years. He speaks fluent English and German and intermediate French. Randy lives in Winchester, VA, not far from the National Archives. He also maintains the website <https://meuse-argonne.com> and the Meuse-Argonne.com Facebook group.

Markus Klauer is a retired Bundeswehr Officer whose military career included five years in an armored battalion and professional work with American and French units. Like Randy, Markus has been studying military history and visiting the battlefields for decades. He has written five books in German covering WW1 and his website can be viewed at <https://gb-weltkriegsbuch.de>. Since retiring in 2018 Markus has been expanding his battlefield research to the battlefields of WW2, including the Ardennes, Sedan 1940, Normandy and the Seelow Heights near Berlin. Markus lives in Waterloo, Belgium, and he speaks German, English and French fluently.

Randy and Markus have known each other for 30 years. Their first major collaboration was a Small-Group Battlefield Walk Series of the Meuse-Argonne and St. Mihiel Salient and a Meet and Greet Dinner during the 2018 Centennial Commemoration. This was followed by successful Knee Deep Into History tour seasons in 2021-24. Both share a deep love of historical research and a desire to get their clients into the field. With their language and cultural skills, both understand the “other side,” and both strive to present a balanced view of the combat.

Select Feedback from our Recent Tours

“Had a great time. Randy and Markus were tremendous and tolerated our sarcasm and one-liners. They picked excellent hotels, restaurants, and were very accommodating when we needed to take a stop/break. I appreciated their preparedness and organization which allowed us to maximize our time on seeing the important sites that we didn't want to miss. I would highly recommend Randy & Markus and look forward to booking a future trip.”

David DiSalvo, 2024

“Thank you for the most excellent WWI tour! I particularly enjoyed the roadside chats with several accounts, photos and maps. Your knowledge is freely given and its helpful to have the German perspective. It's fun to see the humor you share together. I hope to see you again soon on the battlefield.”

Jacque Knight, 2023

“We have dreamt of visiting the WWI battlefields ever since we saw Randy speak at the Hoboken Museum for the 100th anniversary. Knee Deep in History delivered a 5-star experience that made my husband's birthday one he will never forget. With Markus's expertise and knowledge of the terrain, we were able to visit sites, see relic, and hear stories that brough history to life...”
